I read your list and know that you asked me to bring you a Hatchimal this year for Christmas.

As you know, these eggs are very delicate and special. It takes time for them to be laid. Yours will be ready in January. As soon as it is, my elves will package it up and deliver it to you.

Mrs. Claus and I are proud of you and how good you are all year long.

Santa Claus

Santa's Workshop, 1 North Pole Lane, North Pole